Beware! Obsessive Kidnapper Strikes in This Edgy Thriller

Enter the mind of an obsessive kidnapper in the stunning novel The Singing Violin. What must a young woman do to escape a man who is so obsessed with her that he wants to turn her into a prostitute?

When beautiful young Ryanna goes out for a drink with her boyfriend's sister, she realizes the danger that she is in. For they are not in an ordinary pub, but a brothel, and she runs away. Harry, the brothel owner, desires Ryanna and catches her, but she escapes and turns to her boyfriend, Richard, for help. Richard just passed his violin examination with the symphony orchestra, and as he is playing a concert, Ryanna watches him on television and phones her brother. A knock on her door announces a flower delivery. When Ryanna opens the door and sees it's Harry, she screams.

Ryanna's brother hears her screams and calls the police. But Harry has drugged the girl and taken her away. Will she be found before she is forced into a life of prostitution?

"This contemporary thriller deals with social and mental health issues, as it keeps readers enthralled with the big chase scenes. We are thrilled to announce its release," said Robert Fletcher, CEO of Strategic Book Publishing and Rights Agency.
