Autobiography in Photography: See 'A Snap Shot' of Author's Life

If a picture is worth a thousand words, this book hits the mother lode! Andrew Harries always wanted to publish a book, but what would it be about?

“The idea of recapturing my life in photographs, along with family, wife, and friends, has helped me to recall and expand on the humorous and touching moments I have experienced,” he says. “The idea of what to write started me thinking about my holidays, adventures, and vacations over the past and present during the past 50-odd years.”

For a pictorially condensed life shown in snap shots that capture a moment's joy, sorrow, whimsy, or enlightenment, sit back, relax, and enjoy the bounty in A Snap Shot Autobiography. After all, a picture is indeed worth a thousand words.

A SNAP SHOT AUTOBIOGRAPHY* (ISBN: 978-1-62857-290-2) is now available in black and white interior for $26.50 and (ISBN: 978-1-62857-079-3) in premium color interior for $64.95, and can be ordered through the publisher's website:
