

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Disabled Singer Is Also an Amateur Sleuth in Exciting Mystery Series

Romance, suspense, and murder all play a part in Swan Song for a Singer: A Demetria Crawford Mystery. This is the third book in the series, following opera singer Demetria's adventures in A Muted Melody and The Missing Maestro.

Demetria Crawford is a crippled opera singer and amateur detective who has just returned from London to resume her career in New York. Poochini, her Yorkshire terrier, is Tria's devoted protector and fellow sleuth. Her friends Charles, Maggie, and David are ready to help Tria any way they can. She plans to star in the New York production of an opera that will allow for her wheelchair's staging, and she is also undergoing intensive physical therapy, hoping to overcome the accident that put her in the wheelchair.

Tria's return to the stage has brought about jealousy from her rivals, but also a murder! When Charles becomes a suspect, Tria and her pooch begin snooping to find the real killer. Hopefully this adventure won't prove to be her Swan Song.
