Actions Speak Louder Than Words When Public Officials Are 'Exposing Themselves'

The actions of the authorities in Ontario, Canada, make one wonder if they are morally, intellectually and spiritually bankrupt.

Born and raised in the Caribbean in the '50s and '60s, the author has a perception of those in authority as being "good, decent law-abiding intellectuals." So she was in for a shock when she had to represent herself as a plaintiff in the Superior Court of Justice in Ontario, Canada. "I was in for an even greater shock when I filed a criminal report about the illegal activities indulged in by lawyers, judges, and also by a visit from the police, who not only bullied me, but threatened to have me take a test for mental health issues if I contacted them again."

This book also paints a dark picture of what took place at her landlord and tenant board hearings. The blatant lies told not only by a judge at the board, but a paralegal and her clients whom she orchestrated and/or facilitated in breaking the law to effect an illegal eviction. This state of affairs could also happen to you!
