Vampire Story Takes a Novel Twist

It's 1693 in Salem, Massachusetts, and the witchcraft trials are well underway. A handsome young man named Michael has a big secret. In this gruesome period of history when everyone is under suspicion of witchcraft, Michael can never let out the secret that he is gay.

The local constable has taken it upon himself to determine who is righteous and who should be put to death for their sins. Those who do not fit in are declared witches and are put on trial. But the constable also has a secret: He is obsessed with Michael. Fully aware of the man's obsession, Michael's mother begs her son to leave Salem. The constable tracks Michael to Boston, determined to destroy the man who embodies his unholy obsession. But Michael's lover is a vampire and has already turned Michael into an immortal creature.

See what happens when the constable is turned into a ghoul and is cursed to walk the Earth until he kills a vampire. As everyone Michael cares for is murdered, he wonders if his tormented soul will ever find peace. The paranormal love story Tears of a Vampire takes a very different approach to this fascinating genre.
