Words Take Wing in Expressive Poetry Collection 'Angel'

The poetry in Angel, If Mine denotes the struggles of a prodding mind concerning the uncertainties of life. Though there is every reason to hope and have faith in the thirst for knowledge and understanding, it is only through all the trials and temptation that we face, come clarity and success. This is where great people are made, who are vessels ready for their creator's use.

Despite the diverse figures of speech, this poetry does not veer off focus. It addresses the complicated issues life presents us, including love, abortion, forgiveness, and kindness.

This collection says a lot about life and the hope for humanity. Some poems point out wrongs, while others show the path to solutions. With simple language and flowing poetic expressions, Angel, If Mine will inspire you and lift your spirit to a courageous level, allowing you to be all you can be.
