New Children's Series Asks:
What Is at the Heart of 'Moore
Field School and the Mystery?'

What exactly is the mystery at Moore Field School? This first book in an exciting new children's series is set in England. The Manchester school is about to close down, but at the last minute, the headmistress Miss Moore moves the school to Lakeview, a place she has always liked.

Samantha's parents teach at the school and her best friend is Jessica. Just before the first term starts at Lakeview, the two students go to camp, where they hear about a local haunted house. Meanwhile, some scary men are searching for long-lost trophies and will do anything to find them. They even search Miss Moore's office to discover where the trophies could be found.

What is happening with the trophies and how is the school involved? Could there be a connection between the trophies and the haunted house? Find out when you read Moore Field School and the Mystery.
