Aug. 15, 2014 – For immediate release

NOVEL ABOUT U.S.-CANADIAN RELATIONS ... A THRILLER? POLITICS MAKES FOR STRANGE BEDFELLOWS!

Strategic Book Publishing & Rights Agency is pleased to announce the release of its newest title, Some of the Whole Truth, by author Mark Sproule-Jones.

About the Book

Can friends stay friends forever? If the long-term friendly relationship between the U.S. and Canada has always seemed too good to be true, all it takes is one snarky incident to cause friction between the two nations in the political thriller Some of the Whole Truth.

A surprise beginning rushes full speed ahead to a surprising ending in this tale of revenge, duplicity, and lust that takes readers into the crazy world of politics in Ottawa and Washington. When the Canadian prime minister seeks revenge for American hacking into Canada's secret computer files, his revenge is meant to provoke and tease the president, a smooth-talking womanizer from Indiana.

Then the prime minister's wife gets into the sticky situation and makes it even stickier. As for the womanizing president, hell hath no fury like a first lady scorned!
