PARDON ME! LEARN ENGLISH LIKE A NATIVE IN THIS STUDY GUIDE

Strategic Book Publishing & Rights Agency is pleased to announce the release of its newest title, Most Common Mistakes by Non-Native Speakers of English: How Not to Be Conspicuous As a Foreigner Because of One's Bad English, by author Sergiy Zatsarynnyy.

About the Book

Speaking proper English is one of the most important goals faced by people throughout the world. This educational guide shows the way, while pointing out the Most Common Mistakes by Non-Native Speakers of English: How Not to Be Conspicuous As a Foreigner Because of One's Bad English.

The book covers common English language issues for business people as well as students and others. The author has found that non-native speakers tend to repeat the same mistakes, and that these frequent errors also tend to appear in conversation, business correspondence, and emails.

The material covered is a reworked compilation of the "Polishing Up English" newsletters that the author has been sending for over six years to employees whose native language is not English. To put the reader's best foot forward, learn from the Most Common Mistakes.
