

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Every Kid's Worst Nightmare Plays Out in This Mystery Novel

What would you do if your father suddenly disappeared? Twelve-year-old Lula Mae's world is turned upside down when four armed men dressed in black leather jackets take her father away. Her dad never said much about his family background, but he always promised one day to take Lula back to his own country.

Her family was living the American dream until the night the men came. This powerful novel describes the people who helped shape Lula's young life and the two years that follow the night her dad was Deported.

Lula's mother describes her daughter as stubborn as an Irish bull, and as inquisitive as Nancy Drew. Lula can't understand how someone can be deported if he's an America citizen. She tries to unravel the whereabouts of her father in this mystery that will keep you guessing to the end. The bravery demonstrated by this girl who desperately loves her dad is a thriller in itself. Although the premise of Deported is every child's worst nightmare, Lula takes a firm stand and won't take no for an answer.
