Stories of Mankind, From the Beginning of Time, to Present Day to Future

Historical Fiction at Its Finest!

These are not just The Same Old Stories. Mankind has always been its own worst enemy, yet the human race somehow endures.

This fascinating collection of short stories follows the course of human experience, from prehistoric time in the dawn of civilization to present day and beyond, as told through the men and women coping with the sometimes humorous human condition.

The tales are set in far-reaching locales, ranging from the exotic to the familiar. From Timbuktu to St. Louis, and from midtown Manhattan to Marseilles, through it all, humanity is faced with choices to make in order to survive. Will we make the right ones?
