The Pastor's Daughter Learns a Painful Lesson in This Sinful Thriller

On a midsummer night in Newark, New Jersey, Rachael Watts has her first date with a rapist. Charming and thoughtful at first, Carl Bart makes a pastor's daughter his next victim and creates hell on earth, his own hell that is.

Plagued with guilt, a devastated Rachael deviates from her moral teachings and, in a quest for revenge, commits a few crimes of her own. Eventually, her father intervenes and the fallen angel must soon choose between drowning in her pain and resurfacing to face God.

Whatever the outcome, someone must pay for Carl's sins, but it may not be whom you think. This provocative and unorthodox story is based on fact and is a must-read if you wish to have a sleepless night.

About the Author: "BACKSLIDER was inspired by true events after a childhood friend from a sister church confided in me. I remember feeling a grave sense of injustice because she is a pastor's daughter and a leader in her local church, and I thought that godly people were protected from such evil. Clearly, I had a lot left to learn. This story is meant to be unorthodox and liberating, as I explore what could happen when haunting events cause religious indoctrination and instinctive human nature to collide head on." Terry K. is now writing Dream Guy.
